

Dear Partners in Ministry:

Our Church Council, with a lot of input from the Congregational Vitality Committee is about to change our governing structure. Well, maybe not the actual governing structure, that will stay the same – council officers and members, etc. What will change is some of the committees. We will combine and shift duties into “ministry” groups.

The council will vote on the proposed structure on February 2nd and there will be an informational meeting for the congregation on February 15th after worship.

Why do this? One goal is to find better ways to do the work of the church by involving fewer folks on committees and many more in short term projects. All ministries will look at ways to use technology to improve methods and communication. And all the ministries will look for ways to make us a “green” church.

We hope this will be a time of renewal and new energy. The details will be available after February 2nd.

Dear Friends:

Most of us have enjoyed Thanksgiving with you family and friends and are now anticipating Christmas celebrations with parties, delicious meals, cookies, gifts, etc. Our clients are not so blessed.

We are endeavoring to help these people with our annual Adopt-A-family and the Giving Tree programs plus the other services we provide throughout the year. With the economic downturn we have received less cash and food donations. But once again, as the holidays draw near, the Lord has blessed us with many thoughtful persons like you who are concerned for those who are less fortunate.

Thank you so much for your gift of food.

God's blessing to you,

(signed) Carol and John DeGuire – Feed My People

January 6, 2009

Thank you Lord for writing upon so many wonderful hearts to bless others through our special program, Adopt-A-Family. All 50 families were truly blessed.

There were many other families that were blessed through the toys, extra food, and clothing donated. Many families were touched through your generosity. The love of Christ poured out upon us through you was felt by many.

Please continue to smile upon your children Lord, and help us all to stay on the paths of righteousness so we may be a blessing to those in need of one. Remember to include us in your prayers when you talk with our loving Father.

In God's grace and mercy,

Dear Emmaus Homes Friends,

Emmaus Homes invites you to join us as we continue to help over 300 Spirited People with developmental disabilities lead Spirited Lives through our 21st Annual Open Your Heart Dinner at the luxurious Renaissance Grant Hotel in downtown St. Louis on Friday, February 6, 2009.

At this year's event, guests can mingle with "stars" of yesterday and today as Open Your Heart goes "Hollywood". You can help support Spirited People Leading Spirited Lives by attending the event as a guest, dinner sponsor, sponsoring a table for clients, donating an auction item, or even volunteering your time at the dinner.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Chris and Brandi Armistead on the arrival of Caylie Jean on Wednesday, January 7th, 2009. Caylie weighed in at 9 lbs 15 oz and is 22 inches long. She joins her sisters Tiffany and Chloe, and her brother Gavin at home. Her grandparents are Ben and Carole Armistead.

WE CARE COMMITTEE

We have had two funerals in the last couple weeks. Judy York's mother, Mrs. Hoelker and Dana Faerber. The church provided lunch for the families; this is what the We Care ministry is all about.

I would like to thank all the help who put it all together. My helpers were Alice Noland (2), Joan Hemingway, Dottie Vinyard, Hilda Leonard, Joan Schumacher, and Nancy Krenning. Without these gals it couldn't be done. THANKS!!

We also need donations of cakes and jellos. Virginia Hladnick, Alice Noland, Patty Siewing, Sandy Stevenson, Shirley Nottelmann, Joan Hemingway, Dottie Vinyard Clara Hornung, and Merle Schuette. Thanks to these ladies we had wonderful desserts and jellos (even some stuffed celery).

If you've ever wondered what we serve for our funeral lunches, the menu is ham, cheese, mostacioli, tossed salad, jello salads, pickles, potato chips, and of course cakes and cookies for dessert. This is our way of making this time a little easier for our members.

If you would like to help on the day of a luncheon or contribute a dessert or jello when you hear this service will be needed, please call Lois Decker 314-843-0183 or let Shirley know.

Thanks again.

Lois Decker (We Care)

We ask that you purchase gift cards in $10 increments to the following businesses:

PUPPY SIZE

This is one of the neatest stories you will ever hear. You will know perusing what this little girl is talking about at the end (you'll want to share this with your loved ones and special friends.! 'Danielle keeps repeating it over and over again. We've been back to this animal shelter at least five times. It has been weeks now since we started all this' the mother told the volunteer. 'What is it she keeps asking for?' the volunteer asked. 'Puppy size!' replied the mother. 'Well, we have plenty of puppies, if that's what she's looking for.' 'I know...we have seen most of them,' the mom said in frustration. Just then Danielle came walking into the office. 'Well, did you find one?' asked her mom. "No, not this time.' Danielle said with sadness in her voice. "Can we come back on the weekend?" The two women looked at each other, shook their heads and laughed. 'You never know when we will get more dogs. Unfortunately there's always a supply,' the volunteer said. Danielle took her mother by the hand and headed to the door. 'Don't worry, I'll find one this weekend,' she said. Over the next few days both mom and dad had long conversations with her. They both felt she was being too particular. 'It's this weekend or we're not looking any more,' Dad finally said in frustration. 'We don't want to hear anything more about puppy size either' Mom added. Sure enough, they were the first ones in the shelter on Saturday morning. By now Danielle knew her way around, so she ran right for the section that housed the smaller dogs. Tired of the routine, mom sat in the small waiting room at the end of the first row of cages. There was an observation window so you could see the animals during times when visitors weren't permitted. Danielle walked slowly from cage to cage, kneeling periodically to take a closer look. One by one the dogs were brought out and she held each one. One by one she said, 'Sorry, you're not the one.' It was the last cage on this last day in search of the perfect pup. The volunteer opened the cage door and the child carefully picked up the dog and held it closely. This time she took a little longer.

'Mom, that's it! I found the right puppy! He's the one – I know it' she screamed with joy. 'It's the puppy size!'

'But it's the same size as all the other puppies you held over the last few weeks,' Mom said.

'No not size,,the sighs. When I held him in my arms he sighed,' she said.

'Don't you remember? When I asked you one day what love is you told me love depends on the sighs of your heart. The more you love, the bigger the sighs!'

The two women looked at each other for a moment. Mom didn't know whether to laugh or cry. As she stooped down to hug the child she did a little of both.

'Mom, every time you hold me, I sigh. When you and Daddy come home from work and hug each other, you both sigh. I knew I would find the right puppy if it sighed when I held it in my arms,' she said.

Then holding the puppy up close to her face she said, "Mom he loves me. I heard the sighs of his heart!"

Close your eyes for a moment and think about the love that makes you sigh. I not only find it in the arms of my loved ones, but in the caress of a sunset, the kiss of the moonlight and the gentle brush of cool air on a hot day. They are the signs of God. Take the time to stop and listen; you'll be surprised at what you hear.

'Life is not measured by the breaths we take, but by the moments that take our breath away.'

May this year 2009 be filled with sighs!
