Compassion Resilience during CoVid

A recent presentation, found by searching for timely coping advice, identified what a lot of us are going through during the pandemic and listed strategies for staying strong and responsible in this difficult time.

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8DPA_MLZr3g

Sue Dicks and Emily Jonesburg, certified counselors at Rogers Behavioral Health in Madison, Wisconsin name 3 stages many have experienced: 1: overstretching, 2: irritability and 3: withdrawal. These stages seem to happen to people if we don't address the Compassion Fatigue of responding to the pandemic with some helpful ideas. The problem is, when we humans try to go it alone - we often don't cope as well as we could.

An important first step is to recognize that this withdrawal is a normal human reaction - to having these feelings and thoughts. Then, an excellent strategy is to exercise Self-compassion.

The counselors recommend that we notice what we are feeling and ask ourselves: Am I being self judgmental? Or am I being kind to myself? It can be helpful to acknowledge feeling overstretched and self judgemental as normal reactions but that we can also let go and be kind toward ourselves at the same time.

When Jesus walked the earth and became overwhelmed by the enormity of human difficulty - he sought quiet, solitude and prayer (Mark 6:31-32). Sometimes that was interrupted by more human need. In those times Jesus met the need (Mark 6:37) and then renewed his search for inner peace. (Mark 6:46).

Counselors Dicks and Jonesburg advise that each of us ask ourselves:

“Do I let overwhelming feelings take me down - or do I see them as a wake up call to move to a better response?”

The response they recommend is the practice of self compassion. Acknowledging that we feel overstretched and that such feelings are understandable and appropriate - can help us turn the kindness we often reserve for others - back onto ourselves. This may seem selfish - but is the opposite, allowing us to engage in spiritual renewal first - thus gaining the emotional strength to return to helping others.

Research shows that when helpers practice self care, we give better care to others. It worked for Jesus and the disciples, it could help us too.

Choir Rehearsals

We will notify you when Rehearsals resume

The Choir rehearses the Anthem and Hymns for the upcoming Sunday worship service, however, are not meeting in person at this time. New members are always welcome. There is no audition – anyone with a love for music and a desire to sing is invited to join. Rehearsal lasts usually about an hour and we always have fun! Contact Mike Orzel, our Music Director, for more information.

LITURGISTS (in-person worship)

The Liturgist reads the scriptures during worship. We will provide the reader with the scriptures via email or USPS mail several days prior to the service allowing you time to become comfortable in reading to the congregation.

If you are interested in serving as a liturgist, see the RED signup sheet on the bulletin board, or let Tammy, the Office, or Pastor know and indicate the method of receiving the readings.

Thank you for your consideration,

Tammy Knoll

FALL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The 2021 fall congregational meeting is scheduled for October 24th immediately after church. As you know, the purpose of this meeting is to act upon the recommendations of the Finance Ministry relating to the general fund budget for the coming year. These recommendations, along with the agenda, will be available on the credenza at church two weeks prior to the meeting. If you are unable to come to church, you may call or email Carol in the church office and arrange to receive a copy.

You are encouraged to attend the meeting in person but, if you prefer, you may attend on-line. Either way you will hear the presentations of Carl Philips and Mike Shelton. Those viewing on-line will need to use the comment section on your screen to ask questions and/or to vote.

As always, you are encouraged to listen, ask questions, state your opinions, respect the opinions of others, vote your conscience and then support whatever the majority of those attending approve. Be a part of the decision-making process as we perform this important work of the church.

OUTREACH MINISTRY NEWS

October 3 is Neighbors in Need Sunday. Contributions fund many worthwhile projects that benefit immigrants, native Americans and people who are homeless. You can include contributions in your October 3 envelope and write Neighbors in Need on the subject line of your check or send a check to Kathy Shelton. Fall is also the season for Festival of Sharing, and ecumenical program that provides a variety of items to those in need in Missouri.

In the past we have collected food items, dental hygiene items and paper products. Because of covid, this year we are asking for monetary donations during the month of October, and specify that funds be used "Where needed most".

Contributions can be made by including a separate check in your offering envelope or mailing a check to Kathy Shelton. Please write Sharefest on the subject line.

Sunday
October 17
10:15am

We will meet on October 17 after Church to discuss Before We Were Yours. Scheduled next is The Alice Network, by Kate Quin, a thriller about women spies during World War II. This is one of the best books I have read in the recent past.

Even if you haven't read with us before, consider joining us to read this book! We share a potluck lunch and generally have a really good time. Copies will be available on October 17.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

In 2020, all in-person volunteering was paused due to the pandemic. Fortunately, that in-person volunteering on building sites was able to resume recently with new safety protocols in place (smaller groups of volunteers, masks required, etc.). The first work day was recently held at 3429 Park Ave., 63104, when eight volunteers from St. Paul's, Parkway, Kirkwood, and Samuel UCC churches worked all day to put up the walls. St. Philip's has a strong history of supporting Habitat financially -- our support makes a difference and strengthens our community!

WORLD WIDE COMMUNION SUNDAY

World Wide Communion Sunday is October 3, 2021. We will not be able to prepare a variety of ethnic breads and share them on this Sunday, but we are encouraging everyone who attends church in person, to bring a special bread (bagel – Poland, croissant – France, banana bread – South Africa, etc.) for you to personally enjoy during communion. This will be a nice break from the communion wafers currently being used.

If you choose not to bring a bread from home, or you forget to bring a bread, no worries. The little wine/wafer cups will still be available for you to use. Pick one up for the wine if you are bringing a bread.

Folks worshipping at home virtually – we encourage you to also choose an ethnic bread of your choice for communion on this Sunday.

Sunday, October 10, 2021

Bring your pets to worship with you on Sunday, October 10. Our regular 9:30am Worship will be held outside that day and will include a blessing for each pet in attendance.

Please have your dog(s) on a leash. You may invite neighbors or friends who might also wish to bring their pets.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY NOVEMBER 21, 2021

Memorial Sunday, November 21, 2021, is a day for us to remember all of our loved ones, family and friends, who have passed on during the year. Names and prayers will be lifted up and candles will be lit for each loved one who has died the past year.

Please give the name of your loved ones to Carol, our church secretary, so that they may be honored and remembered on Memorial Sunday. Call church and leave a message or email her at admin@stphilipsucc.com.
